Summary of reasons for decision:

The computer image file is deemed to be objectionable under s3(2)(a) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 (FVPC Act) because it promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes. It is an explicit, sexualised image of a boy. The purpose of the publication is to arouse adults with a sexual interest in children. It encourages the viewer to see young boys as sexually desirable and available. The classification of this publication interferes with the right to freedom of expression contained in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. This outcome is consistent, however, with Parliament's intention that publications falling under s3(2) of the FVPC Act are deemed to be objectionable and reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect its vulnerable members from exploitation.
